Player Code of Conduct

Baseball embodies the discipline of teamwork. A successful team is made up of players who demonstrate: sportsmanship, citizenship, responsibility, respect, fair play and teamwork.

As a player of EABA every player will:

- Demonstrate respect for the rules of the game
- Promote and demonstrate a positive environment on the field
- Remember that baseball is a game and is meant to be fun
- Play to the best of their abilities
- Hustle to every position when taking or leaving the field
- Be respectful of practice and game schedules: arrive on time and ready to play
- Communicate respectfully to anyone associated with the game
- Demonstrate a positive attitude toward the game: shake it off
- Do not use foul or inappropriate language at any baseball-related event
- Be respectful of umpire decisions
- Demonstrate and encourage good sportsmanship
- Be humble in victory and gracious in defeat
- Take responsibility for the proper treatment of equipment and facilities
- Not use alcohol, cannabis, tobacco, vaping and illicit drugs at baseball-related events
- Accept consequences, including ejection from a game, as the result of unacceptable conduct
